

PRESS RELEASE

A new book on company law AT

Vienna, 24 April 2024

KWR partner Thomas Haberer has written a new edition of the work on company law (General Section) which was first published almost 20 years ago by Prof. Dr Heinz Krejci. Students, practitioners and anybody interested in company law will find it to be an in-depth presentation of the basic structures of company law, supplemented by a practice-oriented comparison of legal forms. The book has just been published by Manz Verlag

As legislation governs the details of individual company forms, but not general regulatory issues of company law, this task is left to doctrine (and case law).

The book is an up-to-date presentation with numerous references for further reading. The explanations on company formation, company organisation and shareholder status will certainly also be interesting for board members, shareholders and advisors of all legal forms.
