Christina Wieser promoted to attorney in KWR's Construction & Real Estate team

Vienna, 11.03.2026

Christina Wieser, LL.M. (32) has been promoted to attorney in KWR's Construction & Real Estate team, which she joined in 2021.

She specialises in construction and real estate law.

With Christina Wieser's promotion to solicitor, KWR is further expanding one of its core areas of expertise in order to continue to guarantee the highest level of advisory services for its steadily growing number of clients.

'I am delighted that Christina Wieser will continue to support our clients and all her colleagues with her expertise on all real estate and construction law issues and will continue to work with us on the successful development of KWR,' said KWR partner Paul Schmidinger.

"Christina Wieser's promotion is another chapter in KWR's more than 20-year success story. It is our firm's stated goal to offer our lawyers the best opportunities to continue their work as solicitors with us and to rise to partner level. I am delighted that Christina Wieser is now working as a solicitor in our team and is making a significant contribution to the success of our practice groups," said KWR partner and firm spokesperson Clemens Berlakovits.

About the new attorney at law:

Christina Wieser joined KWR's Construction and Real Estate team in 2021. After successfully passing her bar exam in 2024, she was sworn in as a practicing attorney in 2026. During her studies, she gained valuable practical experience as a legal assistant at a renowned law firm and worked as an intern at several well-known law and tax consulting firms. She also spent a semester abroad at the Université catholique de Louvain in Belgium as part of her studies.
